CEDAR MOUNTAIN COMMUNITY CENTER POTLUCK

Our first potluck will be held on the second Monday, April 13. The program will be: The Brevard Middle school Interact Club. Their presentation is to share the civic projects they have been involved with during the school year and to share how the community can contribute.

The potluck starts at 6 p.m., but please bring your dish or dessert to share by 6:15 p.m. so we can start on time at 6:30 pm. Tableware will be available, but feel free to bring your own if you can. Come, enjoy the company of your neighbors and friends, and bring guests if you wish. Everyone is welcome.

APPALACHIAN CULTURE AT THE CANTEEN

The Cedar Mountain Canteen has long been a hub for Appalachian culture. Our jam leaders and performers possess a deep well of knowledge, which we are now sharing through recordings and written words. We invite you to visit us and explore our website to experience the richness of community we offer. Learn more here: <https://cedarmountaincanteen.com/appalachian-culture>.

AROUND THE HOUSE by Linda Packer Young

It's been a flurry of activity last few days as we get ready for a road trip without the motor home or kitty kids. My neighbor, Joyce is delighted to look after them since she lost her elderly feline friend a while back and considers cat sitting our guys a treat. They come running when they hear her voice. You can't ask for more than that.
